My dearest Mother,

Just a few lines so that you will know that I am all O.K. Mother, I have read your letter received yesterday many times also the one from coz Bettie and they are invaluable to me. If I could only be with you an hour to-night it would be the greatest wish I could have. Sometimes I just want to be home for a few minutes but I am not homesick. I have almost every thing I desire but there are so many changes these days that when you have a friend that you can confide in, something happens to change and one or the other of us are ordered some where else.

I like my Battery and the officers also. There is only one telling outfit that out ranks us. Mother, my letters have to be short but for that reason I try to write often. Enclosed find a list of some of the well known men of Chicago who are behind the welfare of this regiment.

Much love to my dear Mother and all the rest of family.

Allan B. Adams

Yours devotedly
